SMILE

Smile when you are happy,
Smile when you are sad,
Smile when you are hurt,
Smile when you feel bad.

Smile is an art,
That fills every heart.
Smile is a rain,
That heals every pain.

Smiling is infectious.
It spreads like flu.
When someone smiled at me
today,
I started smiling too.

FIVE LITTLE FLOWERS

Five little flowers growing in a row,
The first one said, "I am purple you know."
The second one said, "I am pink as pink can be."
The third one said, "My colour is blue like a sea."

The fourth one said, "I am a red fellow,"
and the fifth one said, "My colour is yellow."
Then the sun came out, big and bright
The five little flowers smiled in delight.

Grandparents Day

Grandparents are the family's greatest treasure, the founders of a loving legacy, the greatest storytellers, and the keepers of tradition. Grandparents are the family's strong foundation. Through their special love and care, grandparents keep a family close at heart. To honour them Shri Ram Centennial School celebrated Grandparents Day on 20th February, 2020.

The most awaited moment was cheered when the grandparents paved their way into the venue and were greeted by the students of minor 2.

On the tunes of old retro instrumental music at the background, the grandparents soon settled and awaited the program to begin.

The emphatic speeches of comperes Prachi and Paavni from class 5 and the heart touching welcome songs paved the way for the beautiful program to commence.

Our students presented various traditional soulful songs and reminisced the Golden Era with the beauty of their vibrant, impactful and sprightly dances and involved the audiences by making them wave their hand with the flow of music.

Our little stars of classes Minor 2, 2 and 3 deserve a special mention as they are most definitely the 'apple of their grandparent's eyes'. The various programs so lovingly performed for the grandparents included songs like: -

Nani Teri Morni Ko, Dadi Amma Man Jayo, Grand Pa-Ma we love you, we love you, yes, I do and dances on Meri Ma, Disco, Chatur Naad Badi Hoshiaar and many more such performances completely enthralled the audience.

Cracking of funny and witty jokes, reciting of poems and the thrill of various games like one-minute couple games and on the spot audience games transported them to their young and carefree days. They connected with their grandchildren through these games and felt as if they were one of them.

What a precious sight it was to witness the gathering giggle and wiggle with joy!

The students of Minor -2 to 5 also kept an element of surprise for their grandparents. The students made a personalized gift for their grandparents as a token of love.

The function ended on a high note with cake cutting ceremony by our chairman Mr. Anil Garg.

Everyone seemed fully satiated with the love and affection displayed by the little children with the hope that the coming year brings much more love, good health and gaiety in everyone's life.

The success of the event was evident through the joyful smiles and teary eyes of the grandparents as they were overwhelmed to see their grandchildren performing for them.

The grandparents who attended the programme felt very special and were overwhelmed with the performances of the students. The event was a great success and it concluded with the blessings of all the grandparents and elders present and with the hope that they continue to enrich our lives with the valuable contributions that emerge from their experiences.

The programme was followed by a sumptuous lunch.

It has been rightly said that grandparents are those with silver in their hair and gold in their hearts.
