INTER HOUSE DANCE-DRAMA COMPETITION

The much-anticipated Indian Patriotic Dance Drama Competition was held with great fervor and enthusiasm, showcasing the extraordinary talent and deep-rooted patriotism of the students. The event featured mesmerizing performances by the four houses—Sphinx, Phoenix, Unicorn, and Griffin—each presenting a compelling narrative of bravery, valor, and the sacrifices made by Indian soldiers. The competition was a visual and emotional spectacle, as each house beautifully portrayed the hardships and courage of soldiers through dramatic storytelling, expressive choreography, and powerful dialogues. The performances struck a chord with the audience, evoking both pride and deep emotions. Among the stellar performances, Griffin House emerged as the champion, leaving an indelible impact with its intense and heartfelt portrayal of a soldier's journey. Phoenix House secured the second position, impressing the judges with its synchronized movements and evocative expressions. Unicorn House followed closely, bagging the third position, winning appreciation for its poignant storytelling. The audience was left spellbound, with many deeply moved by the sheer intensity of emotions displayed on stage. The judges commended the students for their dedication, creativity, and the ability to bring history to life through the art of dance and drama. The event concluded on a patriotic note, reinforcing the spirit of unity and respect for our armed forces. The competition not only celebrated artistic excellence but also instilled a deeper sense of patriotism and gratitude towards the real heroes of the nation.

Happy Republic Day

26th January

Shri Ram Centennial School celebrated the 76th Republic Day with pride and patriotism. The event began with the National Flag hoisting by Chairman Mr. Anil Garg, followed by the National Anthem.

Highlights included soulful performances by the Indian Music Club, a group song by teachers and students, a powerful student drama promoting cultural pride, and a captivating dance by two students. A solo song by a faculty member enhanced the event with patriotic spirit.

Principal Dr. Arvindanabha Shukla concluded with an inspiring speech, urging all to honour the Constitution and cherish our Nation's legacy.

Empowered Educators, Enlightened Learners: Teachers' Workshop

At SRCS, we prioritize ongoing learning for educators to enhance teaching and personal growth. After the winter vacation, our instructors were inspired and supported by enrichment programs. Dr. Rupa Murgai, a seasoned psychologist, led a seminar on "Transition with Care & Self-Care for Educators," highlighting mental health and self-care in teaching. Ms. Shreya Snehi from School Cinema conducted a hands-on session on creative ways to engage children and foster classroom creativity. These programs reaffirm our dedication to equipping educators with tools for meaningful student learning experiences.

Subject Orientation Seminar for Grade VIII

The heads of departments at SRCS conducted the 'Subject Orientation Seminar: Options in Grade 9' for Grade 8 students and their parents, providing information on ICSE core and optional subjects. The event instructed participants to make educated choices about academic and career goals, culminating in a Q&A for specific guidance from expert heads of departments.

Goonj: A Whisper That Roared Seminar for Students of Grades 5 to 8

Students of Grades 5 to 8 at SRCS had the unique opportunity to engage in an enriching workshop by Goonj, an acclaimed organization led by Magsaysay Awardee Mr. Anshu Gupta.

As part of the School to School (S2S) initiative, the session was designed to cultivate empathy, emphasize the value of resources, and raise awareness about rural challenges. Through interactive discussions, the workshop encouraged students to think critically and foster a sense of responsibility toward creating a more inclusive and equitable society.

Golden Glory: SRCS Alumini Shines at Khelo India!

Alumni: Kartavya Pandey - Batch 2023-24

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Kartavya Pandey (SRCS Batch 2023-24) for securing the gold medal for Team India in football at the Khelo India Youth Federation Games. Following his triumph in securing a gold medal at the national level, Kartavya further elevated our pride by scoring a pivotal penalty shootout goal, enabling Team India to achieve victory over Team Nepal in the international finals.

The Geography Department at SRCS coordinated an excursion to Dak Pathar, Dehradun, a location of geographical and mythical significance, for 36 sixth-grade students accompanied by three teachers. Hydropower, irrigation, and agriculture recognize the Dak Pathar Barrage for its assistance. The picturesque Yamuna River, revered in Hindu mythology, imparts spiritual importance to the area. This excursion provided students with insights into the synergy of environment, culture, and infrastructure.
